

When you vote, do consider the public interest. I oppose media consolidation. It is vital that the current ownership rules be retained so that the American public will be served.